

Uptown Merchants Discuss Parking Problem

Will Remedy Conditions for the Betterment of Everyone and Particularly for the Customer Who Desires to Transact Business—Committee Appointed to Investigate and Report Back to Association.

A short and snappy meeting of the Uptown Business Men's Association was held Tuesday evening at the Liberty Restaurant with twenty-three members in attendance. The principal topic of discussion was the parking problem which not alone faces Kingston but practically all communities which have a live retail shopping district.

Customers who desire to park for a few minutes in the business section to transact business find it difficult to find parking space for their cars. This condition will become more acute as the summer season approaches and the tourist trade increases. The parking problem, which has been under discussion on many occasions, was talked over and President Vincent A. Gorman of the association appointed as a committee to investigate and report back to the association the Messrs. Herzog, Wonderly, Batties, Kendis and Flanagan. This committee will study the problem and present its findings at the next meeting.

The problem is to remedy parking conditions for the betterment of everyone and particularly for the customer who desires to transact business. An effort will be made to assist the cars of their employees of the congested business streets so that space occupied by these cars may be available to the trading public. The belief of the members of the association is that those who come to the business sections to transact business should have the opportunity to park for half an hour or an hour to do their trading while those who come to park for the day should give way to the short time parker. With parking space provided off the streets business firms and their employees should avail themselves of the parking spaces.

Parking for unlimited time on the business streets the merchants find is taking its toll of retail business. Business firms and their employees who park cars all day in front of their place of business or someone else's place of business are driving away business. These people are requested to remember the other fellow and assist in relieving the situation.

Conditions at the parking grounds will also come in for an improvement. The caretaker will be uniformed and an effort will be made to position cars so that those who come to park every day or all day take the remote positions in the park and thus allow transients to use the more accessible parts of the park. This will relieve congestion and assist the short time parker in getting in and out of the park.

Benny Fein announced that the membership cards had been received and distributed among the members of the association. It is suggested that these membership cards be displayed in a prominent place so that the public may know who is a member of the association and who is working for a bigger and better city. Treasurer Port gave a report on the financial condition of the association which showed some of activities of the association during the past few months.

Good roads and streets came up for discussion. A report was given in which it was stated that at present the city has a force of men employed filling up holes and repairing the city streets and better street conditions might be looked forward to.

The meeting then adjourned.

Fight Dismissal of Stewart Warrant

Senator Walsh's Proposal to Dismiss Warrant Ordering Arrest of Standard Oil Official Meets With Opposition.

Washington, April 25 (AP).—Dismissal of the Senate warrant ordering the arrest of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, was proposed in a report prepared today by Senator Walsh, of Montana, prosecutor for the Teapot Dome case.

Adoption of the report by the Senate would have the effect of ending the habeas corpus proceedings which Stewart now has pending in the District of Columbia supreme court, but would have no effect upon the contempt indictment on which the oil operator is to come to trial here on May 21.

Walsh's action in permitting Stewart to purge himself before the committee yesterday rather than before the bar of the Senate, where he was directed to appear by the warrant, has met with the disapproval of a number of Senators, both in and out of the committee, and it was indicated that there would be a fight on the report and resolution of dismissal when reported to the Senate.

Chairman Nye yesterday took the position that to have purged himself Stewart should have surrendered to the sergeant-at-arms and made his replies in the Senate chamber itself. Senator Walsh took the view that this was not necessary.

EX-BANKER CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Auburn, N. Y., April 25 (AP).—William C. Denman, who resigned last week as cashier and vice president of the National Bank of Auburn, was arraigned yesterday on a warrant charging embezzlement of $133,122.67 of bank funds.

Denman waived examination and gave bond of $50,000 for appearance in United States district court May 21 in Albany. The warrant was signed by Commissioner Rice on information of Edward D. Strickland, special agent of the Department of Justice. This information quoted W. F. Sheehan, National Bank examiner, as stating that Denman had misappropriated the funds and that the defendant had made false entries on the books of the bank.

Frank B. Swift, president of the bank, today stated that considerable restitution had been made and that this with the protection under a blanket indemnity bond would greatly reduce the net loss, if any.

Hoover Wins First Battle

Captures Majority of Ohio's 51 Delegates, Putting to Flight The Forces Organized By The Late Senator Willis.

Columbus, Ohio, April 25 (AP).—Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover came out victorious in his first pitched battle for the Republican presidential nomination yesterday when he put to rout the forces organized by the late Senator Willis, capturing a majority of Ohio's 51 delegates and romping home with a decisive popular endorsement.

The Ohio primary was the first real test of the commerce secretary's vote-getting ability and the final count is expected to show that he captured 31 delegates to 20 for his opponents and a 10 won in the preference voting by upwards of 100,000 votes.

With approximately 800 precincts yet to report out of a total of 3,532, his slate of seven delegates at large was leading the Willis-placed slate by majorities ranging from 65,000 to 82,000. He also apparently captured 24 of the 44 district delegates. In the preferential contest with approximately 999 precincts yet to report, Hoover's majority over Senator Willis was approximately 139,000. The vote in 7,678 precincts was Hoover 293,547; Willis 75,458; Olin J. Ross, Columbus attorney, 7,597; Vice President Dawes and former Governor Lowden of Illinois each recorded around 2,000 votes.

Governor Al Smith of New York proved himself a strong favorite with Ohio Democrats. Although his name did not appear on the ballot, he had gathered more than 30,000 votes in five eighths of the state, holding at that time a victory of more than 2 to 1 over all other entries which included former Senator Atlas Pomerene, to whom the delegates are pledged, and Governor J. M. Donahy, in 3,453 precincts Smith's vote was 30,202; Pomerene 8,634; Donahy 3,820.

Congressman Theodore E. Burton, Cleveland, one of the Hoover stalwarts, led the Hoover delegates at large with a total of 183,857 votes in 7,333 precincts, winning over Senator Simon D. Fess, the convention keynoter, who in the same number of precincts received only 100,605 votes. Carmichael Thompson, manager of the Willis campaign, was leading the Willis slate with 102,413.

Frank A. Brown was second to Burton on the Hoover slate with 178,327 but Robert A. Taft, son of the chief justice, was on his heels with 177,434.

Noted Auto Racer Killed at Daytona

Frank Lockhart's Car Strikes 203 Miles an Hour and Driver Loses Control.

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 25 (AP).—Frank Lockhart, noted automobile racer, was killed here today when he lost control of his machine while racing down the beach at more than 200 miles an hour.

Lockhart had made three fast trips in his Stutz Blackhawk Special and was approaching the grand stand on the fourth when his car appeared to hit a soft spot in the sand. It turned endwise several times, leaped high into the air and made several barrel rolls before landing. Lockhart was thrown out face downward upon the sand.

Physicians at the hospital where he was taken said he probably died a few minutes after being thrown from the car.

New Stop and Go Traffic Signals To Be Installed

Have Been Received and Will Be Positioned Shortly—To Move Delaware Avenue House—Other Matters Before R. P. W.

The six new "Stop and Go" traffic signals ordered by the board of public works from the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company have been received and will be positioned before the next meeting of the board. It was stated Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the board of public works at the Municipal Building, Mayor Dempsey presided with Commissioners Van Eiten, Pescodden, Schenck and Forst present. The board also granted permission to remove the old white house on the Newcombe property at Broadway and Delaware avenue to a lot on the opposite side of Delaware avenue.

The six new Stop and Go signals will be located at the following street intersections: Abert and Wurts streets. Main and Green streets. Pearl and Wall streets. Foxhall avenue and Broadway. Hasbrouck and Foxhall avenues. Pearl street and Clinton avenue. The signals will all be electrically operated and will be metered as are the present traffic signals at the Rondout Creek Bridge and North Front and Wall streets. By being metered the city will pay only for what electric current is used to operate the signals. It was also decided to turn the signals off at 12 o'clock each night.

To Move a House. Margaret A. Looney of 638 Delaware avenue sent in a communication to the board asking permission to have the house on the Newcombe Oil Company property at Broadway and Delaware avenue moved to another site on Delaware avenue, almost directly across the street from its present location. The house to be moved is said to be nearly eighty years old and was sold to the applicant by the oil company which desires to enlarge the service station there.

The board after talking the matter over granted permission as requested subject to any conditions that the president of the board might see fit to impose.

Two Claims Are Heard. John Klarick of 12 Foxhall avenue sent in a communication enclosing a bill for $14.10 for repairs for a broken axle on his Hupmobile sedan which he claimed was due to a large rut across Hasbrouck avenue at the Lutheran Church. The claim was referred to the common council.

Similar action was taken in the claim of Ward Mathews of 115 Henry street, who sent in a bill for $6 he had received from a local plumbing firm for labor in digging up road and finding city stand pipe broken.

Report on Lincoln Street. Edwin Hauptmann of 275 Clifton avenue sent in a communication that he owned two lots at the corner of Clifton avenue and Lincoln street which he was desirous of tearing off and as a good share of the corner is used as a roadway he desired the board to determine just where the street line was so as to avoid trouble, and go ahead erecting the fence.

City Engineer G. W. Codwise submitted a report on the Lincoln street line. He said that traffic was using private property instead of the street on Lincoln street, between Clifton avenue and Grant street, due to the fact that that portion of Lincoln street was a rocky ledge.

The board directed the city engineer to submit a report as to the probable cost of placing that section of Lincoln street in shape so that traffic would not have to use private property for street purposes.

Fear Americans Have Been Slain

Fate of Foreigners Seized by Nicaraguan Rebel Leader Unknown—One American Reported Killed—Three Mines Seized by Rebels.

Managua, Nicaragua, April 25 (AP).—With one American more expected to have been slain today, rebels, grave fears were held today for the safety of any other foreigners who might have fallen into the clutches of General Augusto Sandino and his followers. Four mines in the Pinar region were in the hands of insurgents.

Clifford D. Ham, collector general of customs, received a radio message from W. J. Crampton, collector of customs at Puerto Cabezas, saying that George B. Marshall of New York, assistant manager of La Luz Y Gas and Mines, had been killed. Crampton also reported the seizure of the Roman, Neptune and Lone Star mines. The Americans at the Lone Star and Neptune mines escaped from the rebels and fled to Puerto Cabezas.

The rebels immediately made preparations to resist and attack by American Marines. The mines were seized by Sandino and his followers when they made a sudden dash eastward into the Pinar district. Before he began this drive, Sandino stated publicly at Matagalpa that he was going to kill all Americans because of the presence in Nicaragua of Marines, whom he termed invaders. Other Nationals would be spared, he said.

Apparently under the impression that the manager of the La Luz mine, Harry P. Amphlett, was an American, the raiding party under General Giron was under orders to cut him off. Amphlett, a British subject, however, was absent from the mine when the insurgents seized it, having gone down the Prinzapolka river to the east coast.

There was no information here concerning the fate of the others at the mine. Inquiries received from the United States indicated that these men were L. B. Milberry of Woodside, N. H.; Roy Burley, also an American, and Peter Petersen, a Norwegian. There is no telegraphic connection with the mine and it probably will be days before word of the fate of these men is received.

Marines attempting to drive the Sandino forces from the mining region found a force of 500 rebels in control. The Marine detachment was small and made no attempt to attack. Many of the insurgents are mounted on mules. Reinforcements were asked and additional Marines were on their way into the treacherous jungle country today.

Send Relief Ship For Capt. Wilkins

Polar Aid Explorer and His Pilot May Be Brought to Norway Early Next Week.

London, April 25 (AP).—The steamship Mina was headed for the ice bound waters off Green Harbor, Spitzbergen, today to bring Captain George H. Wilkins to Europe. The ship was ordered to approach as near Green Harbor as possible and take on Captain Wilkins and Carl B. Elson and the airplane in which they flew across unexplored Polar regions.

The ship, owned by the Northern Exploration Company, was at Honningsvåg, Finnmark, Norway, when sailing orders were received. It was expected to reach the mouth of Isfjord (Ice Fjord) Spitzbergen, on which Green Harbor is located, about Saturday. It was hoped that the flyers would be brought to Tromsø, Norway, early next week.

Indications were that as soon as possible Wilkins would begin active preparations for a flight to the South Polar regions. He has drawn up a tentative program for exploration in the unknown regions of the Antarctic and hopes to start for there about the beginning of September.

Marooned Fliers Abandon Hope of Flying in Bremen

Will Leave Island in the Ford Relief Plane Flown by Bert Balchen—Suffering Ice Caused Fliers to Change Their Plans.

Lake St. Agnes, Que., April 25 (AP).—(By The Canadian Press).—Messages received today from the marooned transatlantic fliers on Greenly Island stated that suffering for food caused them to abandon their hope of flying to Murray Bay in the Junkers monoplane Bremen and that they would leave the island in the Ford relief plane piloted by Bert Balchen.

The message was received here at 11 o'clock and at that time the fliers had not yet hopped off. The plane in which they will come here is the one flown here from Detroit by Balchen and Floyd Bennett. Bennett contracted pneumonia while the plane was here and today died in a Quebec hospital. Balchen pushed on without him.

The plane is the official New York city relief plane and the flight was sponsored by the North American Newspaper Alliance and the New York World. It carried spare parts to the Bremen in the hope that the reconditioned transatlantic plane could continue its flight to its original destination, New York.

Delayed by Storm. A snow storm on the route from Greenly Island today held the transatlantic monoplane Bremen on the ice of Belle Isle Strait, repaired and fueled and ready for a resumption of its flight to New York.

The district within a radius of 100 miles of Lake St. Agnes was in the grip of a storm of midwinter intensity. Two fliers with Paramount News-Associated Press photographs, who made a non-stop flight from the island to the airport here yesterday, said when they left the Bremen she was all ready for a takeoff.

Good Weather at Greenly Island. They reported good weather at the island and for some distance along the route, but it was believed the Bremen's crew had received word of the storm here and had postponed their takeoff until more favorable conditions prevailed.

William Winston and Harry Cuthbertson, the two fliers, said the bent propeller of the Bremen had been straightened by E. Koopman, the Junkers mechanic, who flew in on the Ford relief plane. It was decided to use it instead of the one taken in because it had been built especially for the Bremen and was better suited to the plane.

Chicken Dinner for Fliers. The first order of business when the relief plane landed was a big chicken dinner for the entire party, the fliers said. The ingredients for which had been taken in by Major James J. Maurice of the Bremen crew, and Bert Balchen, pilot of the relief plane.

After the meal the work of repairing the Bremen was begun. The propeller was straightened and replaced on the shaft, the damaged undercarriage replaced by the new one and the plane fueled.

The Bremen then was taken down from the island to the ice of the straits on the special runway the natives of the frozen country had constructed under the direction of Dr. Luis Cuisinier, who with a mechanic had flown to Greenly Island with "Duke" Schiller, Canadian pilot in the first relief plane.

All Ready for Takeoff. At 3 a. m. yesterday the work on the plane was resumed, the engine being heated, the radiator filled with hot water and everything put in readiness for the takeoff.

Captain Herman Koehl and Baron Gunther von Huenfeld, the German members of the Bremen crew, were confident the engine was in good shape and the plane airworthy.

One's Honest Opinion
I remember a passage of one of Queen Elizabeth's great men as advice to his friend: "The advantage," said he, "I had upon others at court was that I always spoke as I thought, which being not believed by them, I both preserved a good conscience and suffered no damage from that freedom," which, as it shows the vice to be older than our times, so does it that gallant man's integrity to be the best way of avoiding it.—Exchange.

WHEN you buy your new

General Motors car, why not keep your present car instead of trading it in?

Too many families are left marooned when the man of the house drives off in the morning. A woman needs a car for her business, too—the business of managing a home.

A car that is her very own will conserve her time and provide the hours in the open air that are the best health insurance for children. It will enable her to shop more economically; to see the friends who live at a distance; to keep in touch with widespread opportunities.

Buy a new car as you have planned, but keep your present car for your family.

The General Motors line offers a new car "for every purse and purpose," and ownership is made very easy through the convenience of the GMAC Time Payment Plan.

Another Suggestion

Another thrifty way to have a second car is to buy a good used car. General Motors dealers invite you to see their stocks of used cars and offer the convenience of the GMAC Plan of Purchase.

Byrd Will Stay With Mrs. Bennett

Officer of Plane to Carry Him from Quebec to New York—Bennett's Body to Be Taken to Brooklyn.

New York, April 25 (AP).—Commander Richard E. Byrd declined an offer of friends today to send him to bring him back from the body of his North Pole comrade, Floyd Bennett, because he wanted to stay with Mrs. Bennett in her home.

"I am going to stay with my very good friend's wife," he said in a telephone conversation with his assistant expedition officer here, "and I will stay with her until she is back at home."

The commander said that arrangements had been made to attach a special car to a train leaving Quebec at 10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and that he and Mrs. Bennett would travel in that with Bennett's body.

The body will be taken to the Bennett home in Brooklyn and Commander Byrd said that Mrs. Bennett told him she would like to have the body lie in state somewhere near the home until the end of the week. Tentative arrangements have been made for funeral services on Sunday.

Commander Byrd and Mrs. Bennett were both at Bennett's bedside when he died, Mrs. Bennett having gone to Quebec against the advice of physicians who were treating her for tonsillitis. Since her arrival there she had been confined to a bed in the same hospital with her husband.

Commander Byrd also said that although Mrs. Bennett was told that there was a possibility that the Navy would arrange to have her husband buried in Arlington Cemetery at Washington, she decided that she would prefer to have interment somewhere near her home in Brooklyn.

Huge Church Union Predicted

Chicago, April 25, (AP).—Union of the Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal Church, involving 17,000,000 communicants in 35,000 churches, was predicted today by William F. McDermott of the promotional department of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The proposal will come officially before the supreme bodies of both denominations next month. Dr. Ray Allen, of Hornell, New York, will present a memorial for union with the Presbyterians to the Quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kansas City, McDermott said, and an unnamed delegate to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Tulsa, Okla., will offer a similar resolution.

No such "sweeping union" of churches in the United States has been proposed or promoted officially before, but there has been such a tremendous growth in the spirit of unity that McDermott believes the move will be given serious attention. Commissions on church unions probably will be appointed by both groups for study and later report, he said.

Athens, April 25 (AP).—Recurring earthquakes in Greece this morning wrought fresh damage on the devastated Isthmus of Corinth.

A shock at 4:04 a. m. practically leveled the watering resort of Loutraki at the eastern entrance to the Corinth Canal.

Damage phenomenon was observed at Piraeus, the port of Athens, where the sea rose to a great height and then suddenly receded.

A slight shock felt at Athens at 2:03 a. m. caused uneasiness among the inhabitants.

Other shocks were felt at Corinth last night. These were accompanied by a violent hail and rain storm. Twenty houses collapsed at the small town of Amuri Lamia, but no casualties were reported.

Shocks also were felt this morning at Lamia, at the head of the Gulf of that name, and on the island of Poros.

A British squadron arrived at Corinth and commenced to distribute food and blankets. The wife of the British minister intends to go to Corinth to aid in the relief work.

Beating Mule Had $5 Kick

Norman Kennedy of Plank Road Was Escorting Animal Up Broadway With Aid of a Club—Other Cases in Police Court.

Norman Kennedy of the Plank Road was escorting a mule up Broadway way by a halter Tuesday afternoon and to accelerate the mule's progress Norman applied a barrel stave vigorously on the animal's hind quarters. Among those who watched the progress of the mule and its master up Broadway was Matthew White, who stood it as long as he could and when he saw that Norman showed no signs of stopping he placed Norman under arrest on a charge of cruelty to animals.

Norman and the mule parted company right there as Norman was turned over to Policeman Van Buren and escorted to the county jail while the mule was lodged in Elmer Palen's stables. This morning in police court Judge Shufeldt fined Norman $5 for beating the mule.

Irene Bailey, 24, a negress, who said she lived in New York, was picked up on Delaware avenue Tuesday night by Officer Beardon. She told the officer she had no funds and no place to go. She spent the remainder of the night in the county jail. This morning Irene told Judge Shufeldt that she had become lost in Kingston but was able to find her friends today and was discharged.

Joseph McSpirt of West Hurley was arrested on Wall street Tuesday night by Officer Fatum who charged Joseph with public intoxication. This morning Judge Shufeldt sentenced Joseph to ten days in jail but suspended serving the sentence pending good behavior on the part of Joseph.

Reinter French Admiral's Heart

Body and Heart of Admiral de Grasse, Hero of American Revolution, Were Interred Separately During French Revolution.

Tilly, Department of Seine-et-Oise, France, April 25 (AP).—France and the United States paid honor to an almost forgotten hero of the American Revolution today when the heart of Admiral de Grasse was reinterred beside the body of his American wife in the little parish church here.

The ceremony honoring the Yorktown Naval victor took place in the presence of Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, representatives of the President of France, Marshal Foch and the ministry of marine; and other high officials. Herrick, in the principal address, urged the French admiral as "an officer upon whose skill, courage and devotion depended the whole fate of our Revolutionary War" and quoted Washington's own letter to de Grasse in which he said of the surrender of Yorktown that "the honor belongs to you."

The stout old admiral's heart was buried originally, by his own request, in a small leaden casket in the Tilly Church, although his body was placed in a vault in a church in Paris. Records were lost during the time of the French Revolution, and it was only a few years ago that the heart was found in a niche of the sacristy wall. At the same time the burial place of the admiral's third wife, Delphine de Cihon of Louisiana, was discovered. A new vault was constructed just in front of the altar and here under a marble tablet, the heart and the body of the wife will lie together.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

Grace J. Austin.

Men's luncheon clubs in 1925 are congenial affairs, and they often discuss matters of importance to city, state and nation. But will anyone declare they are assemblages of esthetic beauty? It was not always so. Dame Fashion attended in the early spring a remarkable "dressing revue," which assembled wearers of costumes for men and women from the days of the Greeks and Egyptians down to the present. If one could bring together all those men in shining chain armor and purple velvet, with doublet and hose, it would be artistic enough, but did good democratic, man-to-man luncheon clubs flourish in those days? Dame Fashion doubts it extremely.

But with women, the beauty of dress of those days gone by has survived, even if simplified. At a luncheon of a hundred women attended lately, the scene was certainly like a garden of flowers.

There isn't the slightest doubt that America is less under a galling bondage to fashion than any other equally wealthy society on the globe—if there be such. Dame Fashion was putting her whole mind on pondering this the other day, and came to wonder if the reason is not that Washington is a capital representative of the whole wide nation, without a steady, lutescent fashionable set such as might be found in London, Paris or Vienna. Dame Fashion was a girl of nineteen when she first lived in Washington, and remembers well how residents told her mother that of all cities of the country, the capital was the one where there was the most individuality and the least restraint in following the mode. Undoubtedly this has imparted freedom to the whole country.

Isn't it fortunate there is individuality? If those hundred women had all adopted the same mode and color, what a wearisome sameness! But the luncheon room was as varied in color as an artist's palette. And with good old summer time, the effect will have even greater variety, for all signs point to a print season—foreshadowed last summer, but more intensified this year.

There are black hats, there are black shoes, there are black suits, there are black coats—there are even near-black hose, in gun-metal and cannon, but thank heaven, they are not in the ascendency. The whole universe, when you think it over, is about as near universal peace as it ever gets, so let us all dress the part, and choose the clothes that express joy.

And if you have to get new furnishings, or new glass dishes or anything of the sort, do look at the gay pretty ones before you choose the dull colors. This season these wonderful American glassmakers, who have been delighting us with sets of glass in amber, green and aristocratic looking orchid, are making glass sets in the most heavenly blue, quite like a bit of the sky taken into your home.

—And what do you think? Dame Fashion even saw the other day most exquisite sets of hemstitched sheets and pillowslips in pink and green! (© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

NATIONALIST TROOPS ARE NOW IN TSIENAN

Shanghai, April 25 (AP).—The Nationalist troops today were in Tsinan, capital of Shantung province, some 220 miles south of Peking.

Tsinan was the announced objective of their spring drive.

The southern forces who have made a victorious march across Shantung under Feng Yu-Hsiang, once known as "the Christian general," entered the city from the southwest yesterday.

The defending northern troops were demoralized and offered virtually no resistance. Tens of thousands of northerners had deserted. They fled across the country going east of Chefoo and Weihaiwei on the coast.

Lawlessness and brigandage prevailed today as they trekked across the province.

Advices from Tsinan today said that trains were still running between Peking and Tsinan. General Sun Chuan-Fang, governor of Shantung, whose army was destroyed by Nationalist troops in their advance, arrived in Tsinan yesterday.

More than half of the American and English residents at Tsinan had been evacuated before the city fell. All women and children went to Tsingtao where four American destroyers are anchored.

About thirty Americans and an equal number of British remained in Tsinan. Most of them are connected with the Shantung Christian University.

A telegram received at Tsinan from Tientsin, about 110 miles to the south said all missionaries there were safe. It added that foreigners had not been molested, which has been the case all during the present Nationalist advance.

A few American Baptist missionaries stopped on at Tientsin, 20 miles south of Tsinan, in the face of the advancing Nationalists.

KINGSTON, N. Y., APRIL 23, 1925.

Publication of the Ford Motor Company's balance sheet for the year 1924 shows a drop of $42,000,000 in surplus. That would be serious to most business men and most business. The chief of Henry and Edsel Ford, however, is mitigated by the fact that they still have a surplus of $554,000,000, of which $257,000,000 is cash on hand. With that, they can probably manage to worry along until the new car swings into quantity production, which shouldn't be more than a couple of months.

BIRD PROTECTION.

The migratory bird bill passed the Senate the other day, after "seven years of assurance of good intent" on the part of senators. Senator Norbeck of South Dakota modified the measure to meet various small objections, and so got it through. Its main purpose is to establish refuges for migratory birds, where flocks valued for their beauty of feathers or song, or their edible quality, will not be slaughtered by irresponsible hunters while they are at a disadvantage. There is a million dollars provided for that purpose. It is none too much. It is none too soon, either, for such a piece of constructive legislation. Some valuable species have been decimated during the years that bill remained in the Senate as "unfinished business." Now they may be saved from utter extinction, for the pleasure of bird-lovers, the sport of decent hunters and the welfare of agriculture.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

More trouble in many places over anonymous letters. There are two main reasons why an anonymous letter is worth no consideration. First, the subject-matter is no good. If it were worth the paper it is written on, the writer would not be ashamed to sign it. Second, the writer is a coward. If he were not, he would sign his letter even if it contained unpleasant tidings. The man who is really seeking the public good, or private benefit to someone, may dislike to be known as the bearer of difficult or disastrous news, but he conquers his distaste for the sake of what he deems the necessity. When a good citizen finds it needful to make an unpleasant communication he picks up his courage in one hand and his hat in the other and goes in person to tell his tale with quietness, decency and dignity. If obliged to write, he does so with restraint and over his name. There is but one course for the recipient of anonymous letters to pursue: Keep a sample for future reference as a clue, burn the rest, and forget the substance. Typing is as distinctive and easily traced as handwriting, nowadays, and writers of such letters can be found out. There are penalties none so sweet.

THE TAMMANY RECORD.

"In all the twenty-five years that I have been conversant with the business of the state," says Governor Smith, "I have never watched the proceedings of any session of the legislature less fruitful of good for the state and her people than those of the session that has just drawn to a close, dominated entirely by partisan and petty politics." A truthful and pertinent reply to this untruthful blanket charge against the Republican party and its leaders is made by Senator John Knight, leader of the State Senate, in reviewing the work of the legislature. He shows Governor Smith, the greatest political opportunist of all time, in the role of a partisan serving his own political organization under cloak of condemnation of his political opponents. His aid was lent to defeat of the four year term for Governor to advantage Tammany Hall, to which he owes his political existence. Non-partisan formulation of a plan for water power development was defeated by the Governor solely for the purpose of promoting an issue for succeeding party candidates, thus delaying and temporarily denying to the people advantage of immediately turning waste water into cheap power. This aimed to make impossible the diagrammatic election frauds of the many. Disclosed by legislative investigation of the 19th Senatorial district, were killed by the Governor. The Governor's attempt to promote gerrymandering of the state in the interest of Tammany. He himself reached out for automatic and bureaucratic power under state reorganization, which would copy legislative representatives of the people participation in the allocation of certain state funds. He intended to blame the Republican legislature for the New York City transit situation, a political football for Tammany through the past decade. He minimizes welfare legislation passed by a Republican legislature, and forgets to mention decreases in real estate taxation emanating from this source, together with continuance of low rent laws recommended for abolition by his appointed commission. The truth is not arrayed on the side of this blanket indictment of the Republican party by Governor Smith, a fact conclusively demonstrated by facts plainly written on the public record.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

BY James W. Barton, M. D.

GIRLS LOOKING LIKE BOYS.

A new angle on this matter of "keeping thin" is advanced by Dr. S. A. Knopf in discussing the increase in tuberculosis among young women. As you know, tuberculosis has been gradually decreasing, and it was felt that this scourge would gradually be swept from the face of the earth. However, the sanitariums have begun to notice an increase in the number of patients admitted, and this increase is among young girls from 15 to 19 years of age. Most of us have thought that these girls were doing without food so as to be lithe and slim, but Dr. Knopf says it is because these girls want to look like boys.

They are trying to walk, talk, stand, and smoke like boys, and know that if they eat as they should they will get the natural rounded shape of the well formed woman. Now no one is going to quarrel with adults, men or women, who do not wish to put on extra weight. The penalties of overweight are numerous indeed. However, it is because these girls from 15 to 19 are just emerging into womanhood that the dangers of under-eating are so serious. Our food needs are in proportion to the size of the surface of the body. A girl 15 to 19 has a frame almost as large as her mother, and she therefore needs practically as much food on that account alone. However, she is still growing in height and width, and extra food must be taken to supply this growth. Therefore if the girl doesn't get the food, then every cell in her body is just that much poorer in strength. Is it to be wondered at therefore that an ailment like tuberculosis attacks so many of these girls? Just when they need more food than at any other time in their lives they take less.

I believe we are all glad to see them indulging in games as do boys. This means strengthening of heart, lungs, and entire body. These athletic girls must eat to keep up their strength for games. But thinking parents, and the girls themselves, would do well to consider this significant fact that while tuberculosis is decreasing at every other age in both men and women, it is actually increasing in young women 15 to 19 years of age, due to under nourishment. This is a hard cold fact.

PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL HEAD SHOT BY SOLDIER

Shanghai, April 25 (AP).—Dr. Walter F. Seymour, superintendent of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions Hospital at Tsinan, southeastern Shantung, was shot to death by a Chinese soldier.

Dr. Seymour was shot through the heart April 16.

Whether the soldier was a Northerner or a Nationalist was not known.

Tsinan is believed to have been captured by Nationalists on either April 16 or 17.

The message telling of the slaying came by courier to Tientsin, about 50 miles southeast of Tsinan, and was sent from there by the Chinese telegraph.

Mrs. Seymour and other missionaries at Tsinan are believed to be safe. It is thought that they are unable to leave the region because it is overrun by Nationalist soldiers moving northward.

Dr. Seymour, a graduate of Wisconsin University and Northwestern Medical School, Evanston, Ill., came to China in 1893. His daughter, who is a nurse, is in the United States at present.

The Presbyterian headquarters here was advised by other dispatches from Tsinan by way of Tientsin that Presbyterians throughout Shantung, except those at Tsinan, have all either evacuated or their evacuation is under way. This includes Presbyterians at Tsoochowfu, Tientsin, Ichowfu and Tsinan.

SCHOOL NO. 4 P-T. A. HOLDS APRIL MEETING.

The Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 4 held its April meeting on Tuesday afternoon. Principal Van Valkenburgh exhibited the National Geographical Magazine for 1927 which had been attractively and substantially bound into one compact volume with School No. 4 printed on the cover in gold letters. The association was so pleased with the appearance of the volume that it was decided to pay for the binding of the back issues of the magazine. The Spring Conference to be held in Kingston on May 12 was discussed. The president, Mrs. H. Van Valkenburgh, Miss Jessie M. Parkhurst and Mrs. Harold Darling were appointed delegates to officially represent No. 4. As the annual election of officers occurs in May, Mrs. A. M. Cragin, Mrs. R. H. Van Valkenburgh and Miss Sadie E. Schutt were appointed a nominating committee. Mrs. W. R. Anderson and Mrs. George Kent were delegates to the P-T-A. Institute held at Newburgh April 17, and an account was given of the lecture by Mrs. C. E. Roe of Washington, D. C., field secretary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

It has been estimated that there are only two books in the world that have exceeded the circulation of "Pilgrim's Progress"; these are the Bible and the Koran.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

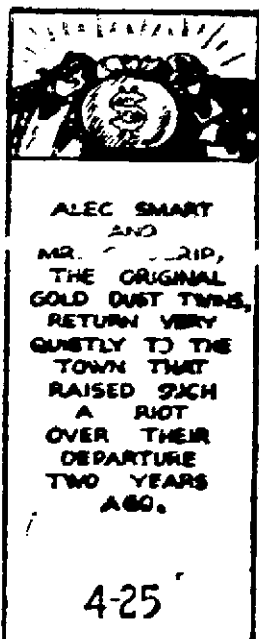

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years' standing.

Mrs. Ellen White of 21 Sanger St., New Hartford, N. Y., writes: "For years I suffered from indigestion. I got no relief from anything until I took Tanlac. After my fourth bottle, I feel like a new person and have a fine appetite."

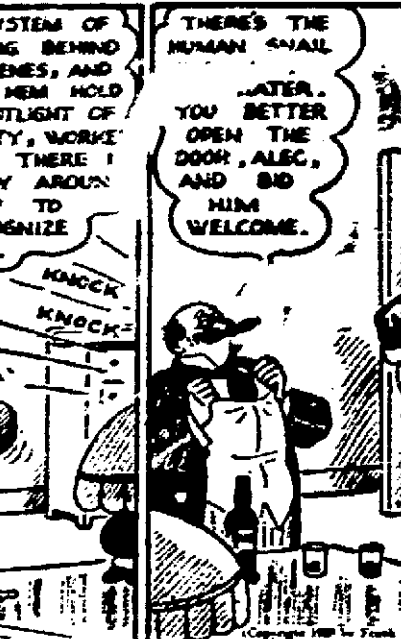

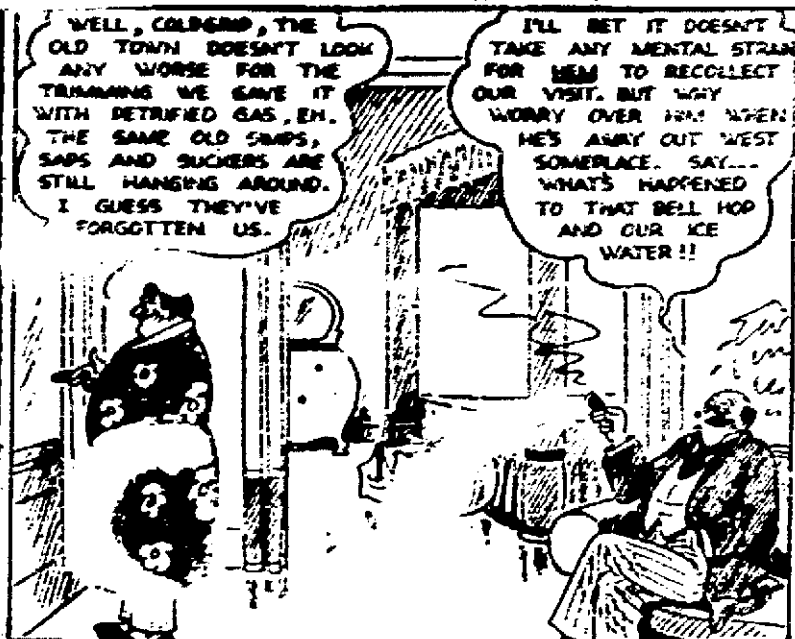

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and berries. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Reception Tuesday afternoon and evening was the clearest in a long time. There was a period of snarling and clattering at about 6 o'clock, caused by local carelessness, but after that there was nothing to interfere. There was no static and only a trifling hum. It was a great day and night for band music, the performers ranging all the way from the Marine Band to the Niagara Falls whetstone boosters. The Seiberling singers sang "Susan Jane" and a number of other old-timers, none of which had been drained from the bottom of the molasses barrel. KDKA was at its best with the late hymn sing and WSM was fully as good. CNRA, not often heard, was clear and strong and WCAU in Philadelphia, and WADC at Akron were among those present. Of course, the Cleveland and Cincinnati stations were on the job. Chicago was weak.

Reception this morning was very clear and strong.

Edwin Franko Goldman and his famous symphony band will give the entire program in the General Motors Family Party on Monday evening, April 30. This popular conductor had been heard by 1,500,000 people each season for four years in his open air concerts in New York prior to his engagement for the big automotive network last fall. Since then he has been heard by many millions more on the air but Monday will be the first occasion when the General Motors Hour has been devoted wholly to his music.

Jeanne Gordon, contralto with the Metropolitan Opera Company, will be the leading artist in the concert to be broadcast in the Atwater Kent Radio Hour Sunday night, April 29, at 9:15 eastern time. Assisting Miss Gordon will be the Atwater Kent Singers, a male chorus of sixteen voices under the direction of Reinald Werrenrath, popular American baritone; Philip Bernofio, cello soloist; and the Atwater Kent Orchestra with Robert Hood Bowers conductor.

A Birthplace of Progress

Bell's Early Laboratory

A LITTLE attic in old Boston some fifty years ago... two men experimenting with queer-looking devices—and there the telephone was born.

Today, instead of a small attic with two scientists at work, there are the great Bell Telephone Laboratories in New York, occupying an entire city block, the centralized experimental and proving grounds for all of the Bell System companies, of which the New York Telephone Company is one.

Here, over 2,000 scientists are ever at work—ceaseless-

Research in Magnetic Phones

Tuning for Heterodynes

ly experimenting, testing—proving newly developed telephone apparatus under actual service conditions for the benefit of all Bell telephone users.

In these laboratories have been born some of the scientific marvels of the day. As a result it is as easy to telephone across the country or the Atlantic as to call a friend around the corner. And here too one may confidently look for the far-reaching discoveries of the future that will make the telephone an even more valuable part of modern existence.

KILLS SURGEON WHO SAVED HIM

Embittered Youth Takes Revenge on Doctor Who Amputated Leg.

A New York physician, the victim of a madman, was killed last night in a rooming house in Manhattan. The madman, a young man, was killed by the physician's son, who took revenge for the amputation of his leg.

The doctor, Dr. Joseph J. Kelly, was killed in a rooming house in Manhattan. The madman, a young man, was killed by the physician's son, who took revenge for the amputation of his leg.

Dr. Kelly was killed in a rooming house in Manhattan. The madman, a young man, was killed by the physician's son, who took revenge for the amputation of his leg.

Several that Kameniski harbored a grudge against Doctor Kelly because of the transfer of Kameniski's compensation money to the mother's name. Doctor Kelly was employed by the coal company at whose works the boy's leg was injured.

Kameniski was said to have been quarreling with the compensation money while his mother was in need of aid. Friends told tales of the boy's many trips to New York and of his eccentricities in dress. One of these friends met him in a New York hotel a few weeks before he killed the doctor. At that time, according to the friend, Kameniski was morose and depressed and declared he intended committing suicide. "I have not $10 left," he told his friend, "and when that is gone I will be gone, for what can a crippled man do when all he knows is to work in a mine?"

Doctor Kelly told how Kameniski committed the murder. At two o'clock in the morning he suddenly appeared in the doorway of a rooming house in Manhattan. He held a pistol in each hand as he kicked open the door with all his might. He then held up the proprietor, robbing her of $20. Apparently he had but one purpose in getting the money for he then dashed down the street to a taxi stand and ordered a driver to take him to Doctor Kelly's in Jessup.

Arriving at the home of the Jessup physician he obtained entrance. No one saw the murder, but the two were heard in angry conversation for several minutes before the sound of the shot brought other occupants of the home running to the hallway. The doctor died soon afterwards.

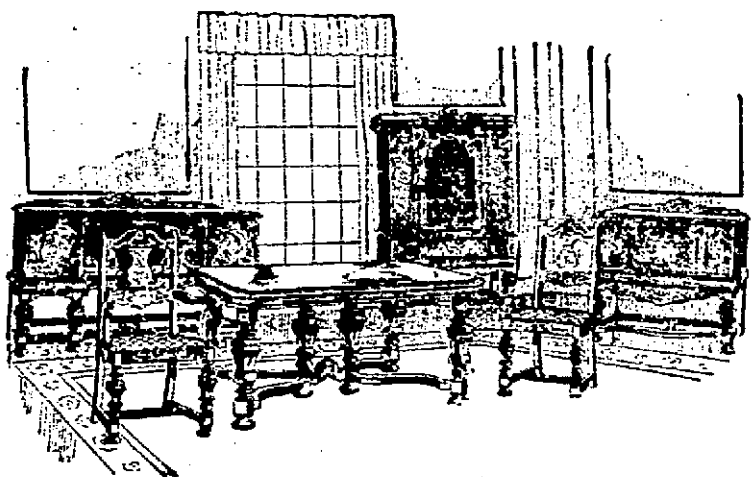

Differences in Height

The little cartilages between the vertebrae of the spinal column in the human body diminish in size during the day because of the weight or pressure that is upon them. In some individuals the difference in height between day and night may be as much as one-quarter to one-half an inch.

Grandmother finds way to grow old gracefully

"I don't try to keep up the pace of the younger generation," says this 65-year-old woman. "I leave that to my grandchildren."

"But just because I lead a quiet life doesn't mean that I'm not perfectly well. I never felt better. Everything about me is normal and functions as it should. I make sure of that by taking Nujol regularly. Nujol keeps me in good condition."

When people become less active, Nujol becomes even more important for good health. For Nujol not only prevents the excess of body poisons (we all have them) from forming, but aids in their removal.

All of us—old and young alike—lead more or less sedentary lives. But Nujol helps make up for this lack of exercise. It keeps the body functioning as Nature intended.

Even if you think you're perfectly well, try Nujol. It was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). Take it for three months and just see if you don't feel better. Nujol can't possibly upset you. It contains absolutely no drugs or medicine. Be sure you get the genuine.

When Laura La Plante dances across the screen, or Reginald Denny whizzes through a picture—the most serious person in the audience can't keep back the laughs. What joyous fun these two do radiate! What relishing, contagious pep!

KELLOGG'S Pep Bran Flakes are a doubly good cereal. There's bran for healthful roughage. And there's all the wonderful flavor discovered originally for PEP.

Try these crisp, nourishing, whole wheat flakes. Give them to the children. Serve them at any meal. Practically a perfect food with milk or cream. Extra delicious with fruits or honey added. At your grocer's. You can tell them by the famous red-and-green Kellogg package.

What Congress Is Doing Today

(By The Associated Press)

Wednesday:

Senate takes up Naval supply bill while House considers minor bills on calendar and rule for debate on Navy-Haugen farm measure.

Coal and cotton price inquiries proceed before Senate interstate commerce and agriculture committees.

House commerce committee tackles Denison bill to increase by $10,000,000 capitalization of Inland Waterways Corporation.

House Naval committee studies charges that franking privilege violated by McClintic, Oklahoma, one of its Democratic members.

Army promotion and retirement legislation comes before House military committee.

Tuesday:

House passed Senate flood control bill, 254 to 90; Senate passed legislation appropriation bill, debated prohibition, passed $7,000,000 corn borer bill, passed resolution authorizing $5,000,000 to eradicate pink boll worm, and other calendar bills. Delayed vote on Blaine anti-interference amendment to Navy bill, and heard Bill, Democrat, Washington, charge the President with violation of constitution in keeping Commissioner Esch on Interstate Commerce Commission.

Robert W. Stewart informed Senate Teapot Dome committee he received $759,500 of Continental bond profits.

Pyrenean Farms Laid

Out on Small Scale

In the little pocket-like valleys of the Pyrenees the soil is black and rich, though it has been in use for many centuries. The farmers know the value of their land and they cherish every foot of it. They keep it built up by constant fertilizing, mulching, composting, cultivation and crop rotation.

But what great odds they have to labor against! Our American farmers would hardly have such farms as a gift. Here we come to a little farm where a man is plowing with a yoke of oxen and a very crude plow, just as in Bible times. Again we see an ox and a cow yoked together, for this farmer can't afford a pair of oxen. There goes a man who has borrowed a plow of a neighbor, and it is so light that he is carrying it on his shoulder.

As we view the slopes from some height, the country looks like a piece of patchwork. The farms in the big valleys of course are much better than the hill farms. Cow paths and sheep paths make a network against the velvet gray-green of the pastures. Sheepfolds built of rails, and small barns of stone, are found on the summits. To furnish the sheep protection at night or in bad weather. Some of the shepherds carry a blue umbrella strapped to their back in case it storms.

Women and children are helping to bring in the hay. Often it is done up in canvas so it can be loaded on the back of a donkey. The fields are enclosed by walls of stone or fences made of saplings or twisted twigs.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Designed Nation's Seal

The seal of the United States was designed by a young student of Philadelphia named Will Barton, the brother of Dr. Benjamin Barton. He made various designs before the seal in its present form was finally accepted. The designs were presented to a committee consisting of Charles Thomson, secretary of the Confederation congress; Dr. Arthur Lee and Elias Boudinot, who in turn reported to congress.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

The White Flannel Suit Is Reinstated on the Riviera—The Long Cape Is One of the Interests

Cannes, France—With the advent of spring, whether in the logical course of the calendar, or whether one journeys to meet it, there comes also the tailored suit. No Paris spring is complete without its tailored costumes of navy or gray, and along the Riviera one finds that the white flannel, the white kasha, and the white jersey suit have taken a new lease on life. Such a suit is completed either with a scarf, or white fox scarf, with emphasis on the latter from the vantage point of some worn with navy cardigan or slip-on jacket or long coat or cape. The long circular cape, reminiscent of the capes worn by Italian officers, is a Cannes fashion. It may be remembered that some of the Paris establishments offered short capes as well, but they have not developed at this writing.

Much has already been written concerning the advisability of adding a belt to one's costume. Belts are of interest of leather, but are also being worn in metal effects, including rounded serpents holding fast to their own tails by way of a buckle. Buckles invariably are no wider than the straps they fasten and are most often extremely plain.

Similar clasps are used at the neckline, a bit to one side, of the sweater or sports jumper and holding a hand in position.

Paul Kruger's Grave

Paul Kruger died July 14, 1904, at Clarens, near Veney, on the shores of the Lake of Geneva, whither he had gone for the sake of his health. He was buried at Pretoria (administrative capital of the Union of South Africa) the following December. When Kruger went to Europe he left his wife in Lord Roberts' custody at Pretoria, but she gradually failed and died there in 1901. It was in her grave that the body of her husband was laid.

EVERY MUSICAL SHOW IN NEW YORK USES LUX to double the life of stockings

Silk and net costumes, organdie hats, extra-long chiffon stockings—all must be sparkling, to make this gay chorus from Ziegfeld's "Rosalie" so adorable! Marilyn Miller, center

STOCKINGS that shimmer in the brilliant glow of the footlights—what critical scrutiny they receive! What strenuous wear! Every woman knows what a problem it is to keep stockings new-looking—and how vitally important, when stockings cost so much.

New York's musical shows face this same problem, magnified many times over!

Wardrobe mistresses must keep thousands of dollars' worth of stockings in perfect condition. And make them last!

To find the safest way to wash silk stockings, different methods have been tried.

And, the fact is disclosed that stockings washed in Lux wear twice as long! Give twice as many performances as those laundered by other methods!

This means so much in dollars and cents to the producers of New York's dazzling musical shows, that they now insist upon Lux.

They all do it

So the wardrobe mistress of every musical show in New York—with-out exception—specifies Lux for washing silk stockings. They buy it in the blue package you yourself buy—Lux is never sold in bulk.

WOMEN EVERYWHERE use Lux for silk stockings, as do the wardrobe mistresses of Broadway. Women know rubbing with cake soap may fade lovely colors—that many soaps (whether flakes, chips or cakes) contain harmful alkali that weakens fibres. So they make sure of extra wear—with Lux.

MUSIC BY GRADE SCHOOLS FRIDAY NIGHT.

On Friday evening of this week the pupils of the grade schools will give their musical program for the year at the high school auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock. In each school and each grade of each school, pupils with the best voices have been selected for the program, which will include three musical plays or operettas. The little folks of the first, second, third and fourth grades will give a musical play entitled "Mother Goose's Garden", which, like the other two numbers, will be in costume. The boys of the four upper grades will give the operetta, "The Boy Bandit", and this group has the special good fortune to include in its numbers several of the St. John's Church choir boys. The girls of the four upper grades will give a cantata entitled "Greeting the Gypsy Queen", and between these numbers, all of which have been most carefully prepared under the leadership of Musical Supervisor Stine, the grade schools' orchestra will play selections and will play them well. The public is cordially invited to attend this musical evening at the Kingston High School.

And There You Have It

"I hear your son has taken up a profession, Mr. O'Casey," remarked the visitor to the house.

"He has indeed," rejoined the host. "He's phwat they call a 'cross-examiner'."

"This was too much for the stranger. 'And phwat's a 'cross-examiner?'" he asked.

For a minute or two O'Casey was at a loss, but eventually he pulled himself together.

"Sure, it's a fellow who asks you questions, an' you answer the questions an' then he questions the answers," he returned easily.

Origin of "Candidate"

Here is one aspect of the origin of the word "candidate" as applied to a person seeking office. During a political canvass in ancient Rome it was customary for persons seeking the higher elective offices to appear in the Forum, Campus Martius and other public places dressed in white togas, the white of the natural wool being brightened with chalk. The Latin word for white is "candidus," and an office seeker so clad was called "candidatus," whence our word "candidate." The white toga was intended to signify the candidate's purity of purpose in soliciting the suffrage of the people.

Who Invented the Wheel?

The discovery of the wheel is lost in antiquity. Crude forms of it were in use already at the dawn of civilization. Egyptian and Assyrian chariots usually had wheels containing six spokes, according to inscriptions on ancient monuments. The Romans made wheels with four, six and eight spokes. Many historians regard the discovery of the principle of the wheel as the first significant mechanical discovery of civilization after the discovery of the lever principle.

Brick Favored Material

All parts of London are alike in the fact that most of the buildings are made of brick. There are no quarries nearby, so the stone for the finer buildings must be brought from a distance. The smoke-laden London fog blackens the entire city, although the West end suffers least in this respect.

Adding two tablespoonfuls of orange marmalade makes lemon sauce for cottage pudding extra good.

Leafy vegetables are excellent foods to provide iron and vitamins. Many plants that grow wild make excellent cooked greens or salads, and some of these are ready for use as soon as the snow melts. Others are best later in the spring. The state college of home economics at Ithaca, N. Y., has a list of the edible pothebos and salad plants found in this state. More Plans for Scout Powwow

The executive committee and the Scoutmasters of the Kingston troops held a very enthusiastic meeting Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and planned for the Scout powwow to be held next month. Much interest was shown and real progress made in arranging the details of the event.

It is planned to hold three separate Scout demonstrations in each of the three sections of the city on Saturday, May 19, at 10 o'clock. These will be of interest to the public and to all who have the welfare of boys at heart. No admission will be charged.

George H. Abercrombie, Scout executive of Poughkeepsie, who promoted the powwow in that city in 1925, is expected to be present at the executive committee meeting next Tuesday evening and offer some suggestions as to how Kingston can make the project a success, as may also Robert Price, Scout executive of Schoenectady.

The following additional committees were named:
Patron: Theodore Clarence Rowland, Lawrence Wilson, Edward Lucette and Fred Van Deusen.
Demonstrations: Benjamin Suskind, Henry Miller, Jr., and Willys Ryder.

Badges: Louis Brown, William Jackson and H. N. Smith.
Thus far thirty-three councils have accepted invitations to be present and participate in the events which are to be staged at Forsyth Park.

Merchants Profit by It —Customers Are Pleased

"I always buy at Smith's because his food is so appetizing—and his refrigerators are so sanitary." When the storekeeper gets this expression of satisfaction from his customers, he can rest assured that he has a clientele which will go out its way to purchase in his store. To build this confidence in his customers the storekeeper must be sure that meats retain their color and fiber, butter its firmness, vegetables their crisp, tempting freshness. He must have perfect refrigeration.

Electrically operated, Frigidaire maintains automatically a constant, cold dry atmosphere that keeps food at its best for long periods of time and almost eliminates food spoilage. And Frigidaire units may be added at any time to care for increased business. There are now more Frigidaires in use in homes and stores than all other electric refrigerators. It's the choice of the majority.

MRS. TINDALE PRESENTS TABLET TO CHURCH

A recent issue of the Kingston, Jamaica, Times Reporter, published at Kingston, Jamaica, says:

An impressive ceremony was held on Sunday, March 25, in the new Roman Catholic Church in Mandersville, Jamaica, B.W.I., recently taken over by the late Bishop O'Hare, S. J., from the Seventh Day Adventists and then purchased by Mrs. E. H. Tindale of Kingston, New York.

The tablet in Memorial Chapel was blessed by His Lordship Bishop Druand, S. J., assisted by the Rev. Joseph F. Ford, S. J., pastor, and the Rev. O. M. Sunnes, S. J.

The inscription on the tablet was as follows: In memory of my dear father, Luke Noone, Kingston, New York, who departed this life 1905. Merciful Jesus grant him eternal rest.

ANNIE NOONE TINDALE.

The consecration of the tablet was followed by a short sermon by his Lordship Bishop Druand, S. J., who spoke of the good work of Father Ford assisted by the charity of outside friends. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament bring to a close a most edifying and prayerful event. The example of Mrs. E. H. Tindale and her friends might be followed by others who profess to be good Catholics since there are so many struggling missions in Jamaica needing support. J. G. Keiffer, general manager of the United Trust Company in Kingston, Jamaica, presented a bell to St. Luke's Church at Mandersville where a bellry will soon be erected.

SHADY.

Shady, April 25.—A play entitled "Brown Eyed Betty" will be given by the young people of this place on Wednesday evening, May 2, at 8 o'clock promptly in the church hall. Every one is cordially invited to attend and see this rural comedy in three acts.

A shower was given Mrs. Elliot Outlander Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Philip Van De Bogart. Many very nice gifts were received as there was a goodly number present. Games were played and enjoyed by all. After which refreshments were served.

Mrs. George Rose and daughter, Margaret, returned home after spending a week at the home of Mrs. William Korte of Freehold. Mrs. Carrie Hoyt spent Friday with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller.

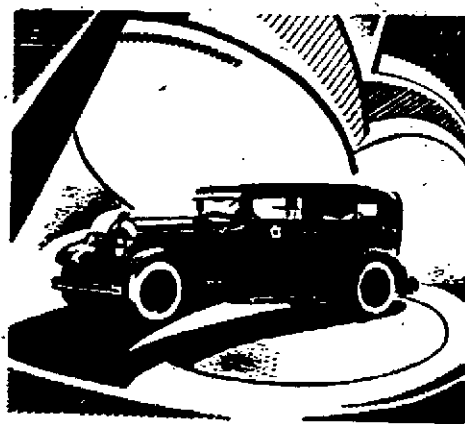

Overtake the '72'?

If CHRYSLER "72" were merely more beautiful—if it were just an average good value—it would deserve no special consideration from the buyer.

But it clamors for his consideration and demands his attention by reason of a gauge and proof of greater value which cannot be escaped.

All cars today seek to approximate Chrysler "72" performance by patterning after Chrysler engineering. But after three years of striving, how close are they to the "72" today? No closer than they were three years ago.

As they have struggled to approach, Chrysler "72" has pulled away and gallops around and past them with more than the ease of the old original Chrysler sensation-car of 1924.

There may be pocket-book reasons for choosing cars of lesser price than the "72." There simply cannot be a valid reason for paying as much or more for any car other than the "72."

Tagging Major League Bases

(By The Associated Press.)
The siege run of the New York Yankees' dread attack has found the base. That long distance artillery shot, Babe Ruth, propelled two balls into the Yankee Stadium bleachers yesterday as the champions subdued the Senators of Washington, 4 to 0.
These two drives—both into Ruth's favorite target, the right field stands—gave the Bambino his second and third home runs of the season and put him three games ahead of the schedule he followed last year when he hit 60 circuit drives to establish a new record for himself and others to beat at.

Yesterday's game was Ruth's ninth at the season. He did not hit his third homer last year until his 12th game, although the dates were identical—April 24.

Although relieved by the fans, the Bambino's rampage was more or less of an ornamental superfluity. Before Ruth had swung the heavy artillery into action, Tony Lazzeri, using scissor weapons, gave the champions two runs in the first inning with a one angle. That pair of tallies was more than enough for Herb Pennock, sniping one of his best left-handed bats, shut out the Senators with three hits. Two of these were infield singles and the other—a double by Lazzeri—got into the hit column chiefly because Ruth, playing in dew, slipped in the wet grass as he ran out to make the catch. Lazzeri granted but seven hits but the Yankees used these judiciously.

The Cleveland Indians dropped a deuce with the Yanks for first place in the American League standing when they bowed to the Browns at St. Louis, 6 to 2. Jack Ogden, former Baltimore star, held the Indians safe while his teammates kicked in with him when they meant runs. Lou Blue hit a homer with one on.

Home again, the Philadelphia Athletics romped away with an 11 to 6 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Joe Egan hit two home runs, each time with Speaker on base, and Mickey Cochrane got one. Speaker hit no homers but he collected two doubles and a pair of singles. The Sox scored four runs in the eighth when Ossie Grwell weakened and had to be removed under fire.

The Chicago White Sox went 10 innings to score over the Tigers at Detroit, 5 to 4. Falk's sacrifice scored Kuebler with the winning run. Al Thomas, White Sox pitcher, was tagged for 15 hits, six of them doubles, but tightened up when utter disaster threatened.

Joe Petty, the Brooklyn Dodgers' crack left hander, registered his first triumph of the season when the Robins buried the Philadelphia Nationals under a 12 to 7 count at Ebbets Field. The Robins hit hard and often. Given a big lead for the first time in two years, Petty eased up in the ninth and the Phils scored four runs on five hits. Leach hit a homer with two on in the first to account for the other Quaker tallies. Although taking it easy, Petty fanned eight men.

Robert Rhinehart, Jr., manager of the team, has the boys dated up for April 28, their first meet at Cornwall. The boys are also going to enter the sectional track meet at Port Jervis, but a definite date has not yet been received. John Thompson, captain of the team and also the mile runner, is showing good form.

The following men are working out under their coaches: Krayem, Halloran, Thomas, Deyo, Happy, Horton, Gilday, Clark, Minsalan, Lynch, Meagher, McDonald, Frankel, Bahl, G. Lewis, McDonald, Stekote, Klotz, Abramovitz, Fisher, Fuchs, Brown, Cassidy, Kreppel, Parkas, Finger, Planthaber, Daba, Lebert, Kallish, J. Watts, Myers, Brigham, Captain Thompson, G. Watts.

Poughkeepsie Team Wants Games.

The Chicago Cubs vanquished Pittsburgh, 7 to 2, at Wrigley Field, Sheriff Blake recording his third victory of the year. The Corsairs scored twice in the eighth and stopped Blake's scoreless inning record at 17 straight frames in which the opposition failed to tally. Homers by Hartnett and Stephenson helped the Cubs. With Alexander pitching the St. Louis Cardinals had no difficulty overcoming the Reds at Cincinnati, 7 to 2. Alexander pitched shutout ball for seven innings but eased up at the close when the Cards had piled up a big lead. Three Cincinnati hurlers were pounded for 15 hits, four of which went to Douthitt.

The Giants and Braves again were rained out at Boston.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould,
(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

New York, April 25 (AP).—The aces of American track and field sports upon whose brawn and speed American Olympic hopes will rest this summer, all would be exempt from the trout or elimination process, if Jack Ryder, veteran coach of Lloyd Hahn and other Boston A. A. stars, had his way about it.

Hahn already has been granted this exemption, largely through Ryder's influence. The great Nebraskan and his coach will make an early start for Europe so that Lloyd may be as fit as possible for his tussle with Nurmi. Wide, Peltzer, Lowe and others in the Olympic 800 and 1,500 meter races.

Ryder, however, feels it would be the fair as well as advantageous thing to do to give all of the outstanding stars the same privilege as Hahn, or at least to avoid the possibility of their being shut out of the team in the tryouts.

"Super-athletes like Paddock, Borah, Morgan, Taylor, Gibson, Hahn, Lermond, Osborn, Tierney, Alderman, Conger, Demar, men who are there, who are winners, men who can punish themselves unmercifully, should not be compelled, once they show indication that they can reach their peak in the Olympics, to go through any elimination process," Ryder holds.

"Would Finland take any chance of Nurmi not making the team?" Ryder asks, pointing out that at least two Finns have recorded better 1,500 meter time than the champion within the past year. "Would Great Britain think of leaving Lowe at home?"

"For such American athletes a sea voyage should be a thing three or four weeks behind them when they stepped to the mark in the Olympics."

"The Finns," Ryder pointed out, "know now their first string athletes and there is no possibility of any of them being left at home because of failure to qualify in a final tryout."

"In 1920 at the eastern tryouts, held in Philadelphia, the runners, as they stood on the mark for the one mile run, were informed by the referee 'now boys, you know the winner of this is sure to go to Antwerp.'"

"Harold C. Cutbill won the race, during the gruelling last hundred yards, racing Larry Shields. Cutbill soliloquized: 'I must win to go to Antwerp. I must win to go to Antwerp. Did he go? He did not, because he had reached his peak and was off form in the final tryout at the Harvard Stadium.'"

"In 1912, at Stockholm this country had the classiest millers that ever represented her. Taber, Kiviat, Jones, but none of them won because they had no ample time to regain their form which they displayed before leaving the United States and because a slump was inevitable after being forced to make their real objective the tryout in this country."

Not all the coaches agree that Ryder's plan is practical, although they probably all would admit its advantages and desirability, from the competitive angle. Yet some of

Tilden Is Silent on Prospects

BILL TILDEN, captain of America's 1928 Davis cup tennis squad, believes "the only way to train for tennis is to practice" and is accordingly putting his idea into effect among the candidates for the international competition team.

"The boys don't need a nurse to tell them what time to go to bed and what to eat, all they need is common horse sense," Tilden declared when asked whether, as captain, he would institute training rules for the first tennis training squad ever assembled in the United States. Thus the leader of the eight American Davis cup teams dispelled an idea of many observers that Tilden would put into effect new theories on how a racket wielder should prepare for international competition.

Tilden is making no promises of what the 1928 team will do toward recapturing the cup taken to France by Lacoste, Cochet, Borotra and Brugnon. He is merely smiling confidently and starting the candidates to work early and continuing late.

The only point stressed by Tilden in the drill was getting to the showers and dressing after play was completed. He was taking no chances of any of the candidates contracting a cold.

A check of players on hand, according to the ranking of the Tennis association disclosed that five of the first ten ranking players of the nation are competing for team places.

The first ten are: Tilden, Francis Hunter, George Lott, E. Manuel Alonso, John Hennessey, John Van Ryan, Arnold Jones, John Doeg, Lewis White and Cranston Holman. Tilden, Lott, Hennessey, Jones and Doeg are on hand. In addition to Edward G. Chandler, Harvard law student and former intercollegiate title holder; Wray Brown, sensational St. Louis player; Wilmer Allison, intercollegiate champion; Frank Shields, national junior champion, and W. F. Coen, Jr., protégé of Tilden, Alonso is not eligible for the Davis cup team, since his home is Spain.

Peltzer to Return Olympic Fights And Fighters

Annapolis, Md., April 25 (AP).—Looking over the field of foreign boxers who probably will enter the Olympics this summer, there is little doubt but what England and Germany will throw the strongest aggregation of fighters into the ring at Amsterdam to meet the American contenders.

This will be Germany's initial appearance in the Olympic square-circle, but her likely performance will be far from that of the novice. Reports from the other side disclose that German boxers have been showing fine style in meets with northern European countries and this closed competition has put them in excellent form for the games at Amsterdam in August.

Then, too, the British colonies from South Africa are usually looked to for a good team, and recent information from St. John Dean, coach of the South African battlers, indicates that he will give the United States double the trouble he offered in 1924. And I am apprehensive regarding the South Africans, for they have advanced by leaps and bounds in fight circles during the last decade.

Just how much opposition South American countries will offer is not definitely known, but from Argentina, I am almost certain, will come Hector Mendez, welterweight runner-up in the 1924 games. Mendez is at present Argentine consul at Baltimore, and I've seen him working out regularly which gives rise to the belief that he will join the Argentines in Europe.

Mendez has a very peculiar style of fighting. He stands square in front of his opponent, instead of to one side with one foot forward, and takes an awful lot of punishment in order to get himself to a broadside into his adversary's head or body. In the last Olympics, Al Melio, now a professional, of Lowell, Mass., virtually played himself out trying to batter down this Argentine, but Mendez had the spirit judge's decision. This South American has a system all his own and will prove a real threat to the Americans this summer.

In the foreign heavyweight ranks, Mitchell, of England, has been showing some real fighting in the past few months—in fact, the last four years. He won the light-heavyweight championship in the 1924 games, has continued in amateur ranks, and will offer no mean competition for Uncle Sam's contenders for the honor this year.

Mitchell has adopted the American style of fighting—rather than the English method of standing up straight, flat-footed, and leading with the left hand jab. He has become an accomplished "in-fighter," that is, he uses both hands, walks right in and slips punches, and then counters with a two-listed attack.

Neilsen, Olympic lightweight champion from Copenhagen, Denmark, gives promise of offering plenty of opposition. He, also, is the American type of fighter and received his training from coaches who came to this country and studied our methods and returned to teach it to the Scandinavians.

Then, too, America cannot lay claim to another world's championship boxing team until such foreign fighters as Sorandi, Italian heavyweight; Sorandi, Norwegian light-heavyweight; De Larze, welterweight from Belgium, and Mallin, England's middleweight, have been disposed of.

MORE SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE TEAMS DESIRED

The Sunday School Baseball League, sponsored each year by the Y. M. C. A., will start action this season at the Athletic Field on Tuesday evening, May 8. A tentative schedule containing four teams has been drawn up but it is desirable that other Sunday schools enter nine in the league.

Should any Sunday school wish to enter the league a representative may make arrangements by communicating with Physical Director Frank N. "Pop" Hinds at the Y. M. C. A. It is the desire of Mr. Hinds to complete a heavy schedule as soon as possible. Managers of teams will facilitate matters by arranging with him for an early entry.

Sunday schools from the following four churches have entered teams in the league: Elmdorf Street Presbyterian, Church of the Comforter, Poncehockie Congregational and the St. Paul Lutheran. It is expected that the Church of the Redeemer will enter a team in the league as the Sunday school of this church has a number of good baseball players. Whether or not the Clinton Avenue Athletics will enter the circuit is not known.

Any shelter that protects fowls from storms and severe weather is an incentive to egg production.

Sometimes (but not always) goslings will live and make some growth if compelled to rely on their own resources to get nourishment.

The extra expense for a double floor in the brooder house is a good investment. A warm and dry floor can be made by including a sub and top floor with a layer of tar paper between them.

Plymouth Rock hens with extremely small combs are apt to produce small eggs. It is claimed by breeders.

Removing the cockerels at broiler age gives the pullets more room to grow and develop. Birds of both sexes will grow better when separated.

During the waddy days of spring it will be well to keep the layers shut in the house during the forenoon to avoid tracking the nests with muddy feet and thus soil the eggs which discount them for market purposes.

WHAT is this anyway—a new kind of charity?" writes one surprised smoker. "Beats me how you can afford to sell a 15-cent cigar like that new Peter Schuyler Victor of yours for only 10 cents."

No sir, no question of charity here. Forty-three years' experience in the cigar game has taught us how, when and where to buy fine Havana tobacco at the most favorable prices—and how to mellow that tobacco so that it will yield its full flavor and fragrance.

That's how 10 cents can equal 15 cents—when one dime buys Peter Schuyler Victor—15-cent quality from tip to tip.

Hoover and Smith Gained Delegates

Both Gave Strength in National Conventions As Result of Primaries in Three States—Hoover Gets Majority of Ohio Delegates.

Washington, April 23 (AP)—To all appearances, the voting in the Ohio, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts primaries of yesterday has strengthened the hands of Secretary Hoover and Governor Smith of New York as contenders, respectively, for the Republican and Democratic Presidential nominations.

Hoover, in the face of a bitter contest, captured a majority of the 51 delegates from Ohio. His managers claim he will have the support at Kansas City of more than a score of the Massachusetts delegation. They hope, on the show-down, to land the 79 uncommitted delegates from Pennsylvania, headed by Secretary Mellon.

From the Smith camp comes the prediction that at Houston the New York governor will have the Massachusetts delegation of 36 to a man, will have the support of all but a few of Pennsylvania's 75 delegate votes, and before the balloting is over will receive the votes of at least 49 of the 48 delegates representing Ohio.

Ohio Democrats for Pomerene.

Smith made no bid for the Ohio delegation which, with the possible exception of one man, will line up for former Senator Alben Pomerene on the first ballot. In the preferential voting in Ohio, Smith ran far ahead. No names were listed on the ballot, but of those written in, the governor, on the incomplete count early today, had twice as many as the entire field combined. Included in that group were Pomerene, Governor Donahey, who is not an active Presidential candidate, and Reed of Missouri.

Hoover Ahead in Ohio.

Hoover, in the preferential vote in Ohio, forged far ahead of the late Senator Willis, who received many votes despite his recent death. The names of both were on the ballot. Those of Dawes and Lowden were not, but several thousand Republicans wrote them in. The preferential result under Ohio laws is not binding on delegates.

Neither is it in Massachusetts where Hoover and Smith ranged away with the vote, cast under a new state law which enabled voters to write in the names of their favorites. Friends of President Coolidge in his home state planned to roll up a preferential vote for him at the polls, but last week he squeaked that move. Despite that several thousands of his supporters wrote in his name.

Notables Elected in Massachusetts.

Among the Bay State Republicans who will go to Kansas City as delegates are Chairman Butler of the Republican National Committee, close friend of the President; Senator Gilbert and former Governor Cox, regarded as a lawman at heart. One of the Democratic delegates-at-large from Massachusetts will be Senator David I. Walsh, a staunch supporter of Governor Smith.

No Preference in Pennsylvania.

In Pennsylvania no candidate in either major party sought the preferential vote. Incomplete returns showed six Smith men and two anti-Smith candidates leading for the eight places on the delegation-at-large, each to have half a vote in the convention. The Republican organization state was ratified without opposition.

While votes were being cast in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts yesterday, Alaskans in a primary were determining their national convention representatives with a Smith slate of six delegates unopposed and five Republicans seeking two places on the Republican delegation.

Kansas for Favorite Son.

In Kansas the Democrats in convention instructed their delegation of twenty to support Representative Ayres, the only Democrat from Kansas in Congress, for the Presidency. Adherents of Senator Reed of Missouri had laid plans to capture the delegation and there were indications that some of the Smith followers aided the Ayres "Favorite Son" movement.

Oklahoma Republicans rounded out their delegation of 20, with a Curtis-Lowden coalition holding the whip-hand. Hoover supporters say they see little chance of getting much support from Oklahoma delegates.

Michigan Republicans Meet.

The Republican state convention in Michigan was on today's calendar, with Hoover certain to get the 32 delegates. That block, with 31 from Ohio, will raise his conceded total of delegates already selected to 283, with Lowden, as runner-up having 175. Neither total takes into account the possible lineup of the delegates named yesterday in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma or Alaska, many of whom the Hoover forces are claiming.

As for Smith, he had 311 conceded delegates prior to yesterday. A solid delegation from Massachusetts and the sixty odd his supporters claim from Pennsylvania would put his total above his high mark of 363 at the New York convention in 1924.

Pennsylvania's Primary Election

Philadelphia, April 25 (AP).—In the primary election today from Pennsylvania's primary election indicated that supporters of Governor Alfred E. Smith would split a majority of the vote in the election to the National Assembly Convention. The delegates will not be instructed, but Joseph P. Gurney, national committee chairman, claimed that at least 55 out of the 75 votes would be cast for the New York candidate.

The Republicans will send an unopposed delegation of 75 to the national convention at Kansas City. The seven Republican delegates at large were unopposed, but there were some contests for district delegates.

Interest in the primary centered in the fight for Democratic delegates at large with 13 candidates for eight places. Friends of Vance C. McCormick, former Democratic national chairman, opposed delegates favorable to Smith in a number of districts. The McCormick supporters gave no indication as to who they favored.

Figures from 2,525 districts out of 5,151 in the state show that seven of the eight leading candidates favor Governor Smith.

Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon is expected to be chosen chairman of the Republican delegation at a caucus to be held here next month. Other delegates at large elected by the Republicans were Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Governor John S. Fisher, Senator-elect William S. Vare, W. L. Mellon, Republican state chairman, W. D. B. Ames, chairman of the Public Service Commission, and Mrs. Marion M. Scrantom.

Former United States Senator George Wharton Pepper was elected a Republican district delegate, as was Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association. Among the Democratic district delegates named was Roland S. Morris, former ambassador to Japan.

Both of the major parties also nominated candidates for statewide offices. 25 members of the state senate and 208 members of the lower house of the legislature. There was little or no opposition to the candidates of either party for statewide offices.

GOLD AT SEA BOTTOM NOW SOUGHT BY RADIO FINDER

New Device is Expected to Locate Treasure Sunk by Old-Time Buccaneers.

Baron Rouge, La.—Treasure believed to have been sent to the bottom of the sea by pirates also reached the Spanish Main centuries ago, and which has defied all efforts of treasure hunters, will be sought with a new radio device this summer.

A. G. Maher, Baton Rouge man who invented the "ground radio," with which he has unearthed a small fortune in buried treasure, has developed a similar machine for use in water and is authority for the announcement of the expedition, which plans to go to the southwestern coast of South America this summer.

A vessel mounted with divers and fully equipped for the adventure will be used in the search, Maher says. A Tennessee man whose name is withheld is financing the expedition. The Spanish galleon sought is believed to have been sunk near the coast by pirates about 1700. One vessel alone is reported to contain a million dollars in gold bullion, which was being transported from Mexico to Spain at the time it was sunk in a battle with the buccanniers.

Maps and charts believed to have been those of Sir Henry Morgan, the historic pirate chief, are in possession of the party, Maher says, and already have been used in another successful expedition into southern Panama and South America.

Maher first experimented with radio as a means of detecting buried treasure in 1918, but did not perfect his invention until 1922. Since then he has participated in several successful treasure hunts.

Both the ground and water machines are so constructed that when they pass over non-magnetic metal they produce in the ear phones a sound reaction characteristic of the several metals so accurately that the operator can tell the nature of the find.

The South American ground radio explorations uncovered treasures in the old Castillo de San Gerónimo, near Porto Bello, destroyed in 1710, and at Cruces Tránsito. Included in the finds are religious ornaments of gold and silver, a silver church bell, a large crown inlaid with gold, gold and silver vessels and ancient pistols. Other finds have been conducted by Maher in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, California and other states.

The Morgan charts, he says, are owned by a Tennesseean, who claims to be a direct descendant of the pirate chief.

Brooklyn Now Center for New York Jews

New York.—Manhattan has had to yield to Brooklyn as the chief center of the Jewish population of the metropolis. A survey just completed under the auspices of the Bureau of Jewish Social Research shows that Jews are moving out of the tenement districts of the lower East side into Harlem, Bronx and the Park avenue sections. Brooklyn now has 45.9 per cent of the 1,720,000 Jews in the entire city.

The Brooklyn movement has all been into one-family, two-family and apartment house sections, the survey showed. Coney Island, with 90.7 per cent, comes nearest to being all Jewish of any section.

Mortality statistics indicated that the death rate is surprisingly low in the younger adult age group from fifteen to forty-five. From the latter age on, however, the rate is higher, than for the general population when the older people fall ready victims to the degenerative diseases, such as heart disease, diabetes, cancer and nephritis.

"Big Hitch" Praised by Plains Farmers

Washington.—Reports from farming communities, particularly in the great plains states, indicate to the Department of Agriculture that farmers are finding it expedient to work from eight to twelve horses in the so-called "big hitch."

Successful use of big-team hitches involves the arrangement of horses partly in tandem to avoid side draft and for simplicity in driving. They are especially adapted to plowing, disking, harrowing and harvesting and can be used in the corn belt and other regions having extensive fields, as well as in the Northwest where the idea originated.

One man, it is declared, working the "big hitch," can do more in a single day than two or three men were doing before with smaller teams. South Dakota and Minnesota are taking a forward step in using these large power units in keeping down the cost of crop production.

New Haven, Conn.—The second biggest living world figure, in the opinion of Yale seniors, is Mussolini. The middle name of the first is the same as that of a famous Roman emperor. He is a 2'er.

Boys' Week Opens Next Sunday

Boys' Week will officially open on Sunday, April 29, and continue throughout the week. One of the outstanding features of this week will be the service of worship, conducted by the Boys' Department Team, which is a part of the Boys' Club in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, at 715 Wall St.

The Kingston Boys' Club is a group of young men and members of the Kingston High School, and who have been in school for more than one year.

These young men meet weekly at the Y. M. C. A. for a lunch and for a devotional period together. They frequently have speakers, who bring them real messages. Discussion of the problems of youth are conducted by the boys with their leaders, and ideas and ideals are formulated, which makes as one graduate said, "The best preparation for college camps that any young fellow can have."

The motto of the Boys' Club is "to create, maintain and extend high standards of Christian character throughout their school and community."

The Boys' Department Team is a part of that organization, and in the past five years have been conducting services throughout the county. Each season they travel over three hundred miles and speak to about 2000 people. And for what reason?

There is a theory prevalent that the young High School students are not giving much of their time to the consideration of the world while things but are more interested in jazz and its allied habits. These boys are attempting to bring to the older generation the thought that they are interested in the deeper things of life, and that they are actually preparing themselves for leadership in the Church.

During the past four months the team has conducted 14 services as follows:

So easily owned!
Many people regretfully postpone the joys of a Pierce-Arrow—and compromise on some other car not the least bit easier to own!
All because they do not realize that today's Pierce-Arrow costs less than half the price of the Pierce-Arrow of former years.
FROM $2900 AT BUFFALO
You may purchase a Pierce-Arrow out of income, if you prefer. A simplified financing plan makes this a most practical procedure. Your present car accepted as cash up to the full amount of its appraisal valuation.
